Be informed about the End of Life Choice Act Referendum:

- The End of Life Choice Act is not an option of 'last resort'. It will not just apply to the 'exceptionally difficult cases'. It does not require that a person first make use of available treatments or counselling, nor that they first receive palliative care. A person does not need to be in physical pain.
- If euthanasia becomes legal in NZ, people will access it because they think they lack other choices. Even though quality palliative care is effective, there is no corresponding legal right to access palliative care. Under current law, people can already say 'no' to treatments and can receive whatever level of pain relief they need. These days, no-one need die in pain.

The EOLC Act is badly drafted and seriously flawed. Whatever one's views about the idea of euthanasia, it is not 'compassion' to vote for a dangerous law.

Justice & Peace - End of Life Choice Referendum

Dearest fellow St Joseph's Orakei parishioners,
I hope you and your loved ones are well. As you know, in this year's General Election, you will be asked to vote in a referendum on whether you support the End of Life Choice Act 2019.

Please take the time to inform yourself about this piece of legislation here <https://www.referendums.govt.nz/endoflifechoice/index.html> and also. Another resource for you is Family First's "20 Reasons to vote No to Euthanasia in 2020". These brochures are available in our church foyer if you would like a hard copy or you can download an electronic copy here: <https://www.familyfirst.org.nz/2020/05/new-resource-20-reasons-to-vote-no-to-euthanasia/>

Also, as the Justice & Peace lead in our Parish Pastoral Council, I want to bring awareness to all the work that is done in our diocese. The Catholic Diocese of Auckland's Justice and Peace Commission, along with Bishop Pat Dunn and our universal Church, have a vision of action for social justice as integral to our following the Gospel as Catholic Christians. Please use this link to learn more <https://www.aucklandcatholic.org.nz/justice-peace/>.

I would like to invite any parishioners interested in being beacons of social justice for our parish to contact me, Lisa Filitonga (l.filitonga@gmail.com).

The Justice & Peace Commission "listens to the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor". Laudato Si God bless you all and stay safe,

Lisa

Parish Update

The Seal of Confession.

It is reported that the law in Queensland, Australia, now requires priests to disclose to authorities information about abusers of children learned by the priest in confession either from the abuser or from the victim. Other Australian states already have such laws. Similar laws may be proposed in Aotearoa New Zealand at some time. The Vatican has made it absolutely clear that under no circumstances is a priest to reveal any information whatsoever about the sin of any person learned in the sacrament. Catholics can be assured that priests will not disclose such information, even if threatened with imprisonment. Priests would consider this an absolute betrayal of everything we stand for. Fr Pat
