TRINITY SUNDAY 12 JUNE 2022

Our Mission Statement: St Joseph's Parish is a community of disciples of Jesus, being of service to the world, for the greater glory of God.

The Trinity: A Communion in Diversity

On Ascension Day, I introduced the idea that we as a parish may be able to undertake a particular form of outreach: ministering to refugees, and to people with no place to call home.

I picked up on this idea in last week's newsletter, observing how this vision is very much in keeping with last Sunday's feast of Pentecost. After all, Pentecost shows us the apostles, fired up with the Holy Spirit, going forth to bring the Good News to people of every race and language.

This spirit of "reaching out", going "out of ourselves", is wonderfully expressed in the theme for next Sunday's Day of Migrants and Refugees which adopts Pope Francis' words: "Towards An Ever Wider 'We'".

It's early days yet, but I would like Today's feast of the Trinity offers what it means to reach out to a

As Jesus says today: "All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he [the Holy Spirit] will take what is mine and declare it to you" (John 16:15).

God shows us how to "reach out" to a "wider We". As it says in Philippians 2, Jesus "did not count equality with God something to be grasped, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, born in human likeness".

Indeed creation itself is the result of God "going out of himself". It's only through God's selfless love for us that we come to know the Trinity. Our true unity as a parish will become more evident the more we "go out of ourselves". God has shown us the way. We return the compliment.

God bless you all. Fr Pat
